Giving back to the community

Westwind Proudly Supports the Following Organizations

Road Runner Food Bank of New Mexico provides food directly to partner agencies in the 16 counties across southern and south-central New Mexico.

UWCNM (Family Advocacy Center) provides free and confidential services for victims of interpersonal violence.

Joy Junction is dedicated to helping homeless men, women, children & families in Albuquerque by providing food, clothing, shelter & safety.

Watermelon Mountain Ranch has rescued and adopted out over 150,000 animals into loving homes. It is one of the largest, no-kill animal shelters and not-for-profit facilities in the Southwest.

St. Vincent De Paul Society (Food Distribution) aims to end poverty through systemic change and has helped more than 5.4 million people through visits to homes, prisons and hospitals.

Deputy James F. McGrane Officer Street Survival Fund has provided advanced street survival training to approximately 2,000 police officers from cities, counties, universities and reservations from New Mexico.

Carrie Tingley Hospital Foundation strives to enhance the lives of Carrie Tingley Hospital patients and special needs children and their families throughout New Mexico—providing individualized services that bridge the gap for families with special needs.

The National Museum of Nuclear Science & History is a national repository of nuclear science information chartered by the 102nd United States Congress.

OSCAR Foundation is a non-profit corporation that provides pet owners financial assistance based on need, so their pets can access surgery and physical rehabilitation to optimize mobility and quality of life.

The NMSU Scholarship Foundation is dedicated to building relationships and generating support for NMSU's students, teaching, research and public service missions.

Wild Wolf Spirit Sanctuary rescues and provides lifetime care to wolves, wolf-dogs and other wild canines who were victims of the pet trade in New Mexico.

Tree New Mexico is dedicated to ensuring sustainable forests in urban and rural communities and natural areas through restoration, public education and advocacy.

Desert Forge Foundation provides agricultural and business training to veterans and local NM residents, with a focus on growing healthy, affordable food through its Warrior Farmer Project.

Ronald McDonald House Charities of New Mexico provides programs, services and housing for families with seriously ill or injured children.
